

Socio-Economic Status (SES)* Map, Mecklenburg County

*SES is an index variable using family income, adult educational attainment, homeownership, household composition, and English language ability using 2020 American Community Survey data at the block group level. This map was created by the CMS Planning Department in 2022.